Can you give me any idea as to what Nos. 200, 201, 202 and 219 on the catalogue of your sale on 20th inst., are likely to bring?

Thanking you in advance, I remain

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen :

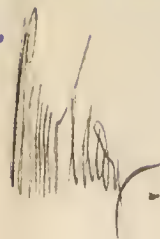

I am in receipt of your favor of 15th inst. While I have been told that to send a bid to you is equivalent to being compelled to pay the top notch, I am willing to make a trial and govern my future action by its results.

If No. 200 is Marvin's 265, you may buy it at your price up to about $5.00; No. 201, fifty cents; No. 202, seventy five cents to one dollar, and No. 219 (Marvin's No. 280) "probably $3. to $5."

I should very much like to get No. 200 (if it is Marvin's No. 265) and No. 219, and thought at first of asking a friend of mine to bid for me, but, as above stated, have concluded to give you a trial.

I note that you write "We have a splendid line of Masonics". I am glad to know it but would be still more gratified if I thought I could purchase any of them at anything like a reasonable price. You know that you have established a reputation of selling goods at drug-store prices, and this has thoroughly frightened me as I do not care to put any one to the expense of sending me a lot of medals on approval merely to have them returned on account of the prices. If you have anything (especially English) which is really desirable, at reasonable prices, I would be glad to hear from you.

Very truly yours,

Levy

Gentlemen:

Enclosed please find my check No. 1383 for $1.85,
in payment of enclosed bill, which please receipt and return. At the same time I would be obliged to you if you would answer the following questions:

First, is No. 201 Baker's No. 71 or No. 72? Secondly, what did No. 200 and 219 bring? Thirdly, why did you in place of 19th list ~~refer~~ to bidders who make their bids "as low as it is possible to have even a chance of getting at", in view of the fact that I authorized you to bid to the utmost limit specified by yourselves? Fourthly, what has become of the magnificent collection of Masonic ~~books~~ about which you wrote me?

Very truly yours,

Lewy
